

Appreciation

The families of Obaapanin Martha Ampofowaa and Opanin Kwabena Asare wish to express our deepest and heartfelt appreciation to everyone who supported us before, during, and after the funeral of our beloved mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, sister, brother, and friend.

We are sincerely grateful to our pastors, church leaders, ministers, family members, friends, neighbours, colleagues, sympathisers, and well-wishers for your prayers, presence, words of comfort, donations, gifts, and every form of support extended to us during this difficult period.

Your presence at the funeral, messages of condolence, financial assistance, food, transportation, and other contributions brought us great comfort and reminded us that we were not alone in our time of grief.

We especially appreciate all those who travelled from near and far to mourn and celebrate the lives of Obaapanin Martha Ampofowaa and Opanin Kwabena Asare with us. Although words cannot fully express our gratitude, we say: May the Almighty God richly bless you, replenish all that you have spent, and grant you and your families peace, strength, good health, and long life.

We are deeply grateful for your love and support.

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Tribute by Church

OBP MARTHA AMPOFOWAA

to the late

OP KWABENA ASARE

"And we know that things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose" (ROMANS 8:28)

Madam Martha Ampofowaa surrendered her life to Christ through baptism on 19th Nov, 2006, at Mankranso.

Maame Ampofowaa, as affectionately called, was a punctual, devoted, dedicated, truthful, selfless, and prayerful Christian.

Maame Ampofowaa has a smiling face and an excellent interpersonal relationship with others, and most essentially, she loves songs, so we always see her congratulating song leaders after church service. Whenever the Church organizes a communal labour, you will see Maame Ampofowaa together with her team of old women doing their part to the glory of God.

It was less than two (2) years that owing to aging, for mally retired from joining church gatherings, but the church did not reject her. We regularly visit her and pray for her, hoping to see her at church again, but our Lord, who knows best, called her into His glory.

Hmm! She is not with us any longer, and it gives us inward pain, but we shall still be joined in heart, and we hope to meet again.

Madam Martha Ampofowaa.
Rest in peace.

"The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way."

— Psalm 37:23

Our beloved brother, Kwabena Asare, affectionately known as Teacher Ata or Agya Ata, was a devoted member of the Twelve Apostles Church. He was baptised in 1985 by Odifo Paul and ordained as a Disciple in 1993.

He faithfully served God and the Church, progressing from Disciple to Secretary and eventually National Secretary. He was a devoted, truthful, selfless, and prayerful Christian who remained committed to the work of God.

His faith became especially meaningful during difficult seasons in his family life. By God's grace, he was blessed with children and named his son Paul Tandoh after Prophet Paul Tandoh as a testimony of his gratitude.

Today, we mourn a brother, disciple, servant, leader, and faithful member. We thank God for his life, service, and lasting contribution to the Church.

You served your generation.

You kept the faith.

You left your footprints in the work of God.

DAMIRIFA DUE, TEACHER ATA.
May your soul rest in perfect peace.

Church Service

A combined church service for the two funeral ceremony

XX

OBP. MARTHA AMPOFOWAA
CHURCH OF CHRIST

Part One

Unveiling the Corpse

1. Prayer
2. Laying -in-state
3. Hymn
4. prayer
5. Customary Rites

Part Two

Burial Service

1. Hymn
2. Prayer
3. Hymn
4. Bible Reading
5. Biogroahy and Tributes
6. Hymn
7. Sermon
8. Sentences
9. Prayer
10. Hymn

Part Three

At the Grave Side

1. Hymn
2. Prayer
3. Committal

M.C. Daniel Codjoe

OP. KWABENA ASARE
TWELVE APOSTLE CHURCH

Part One

Unveiling the Corpse

1. Prayer
2. Laying -in-state
3. Song
4. prayer

Part Two

Burial Service

1. Song
2. Prayer
3. Song
4. Bible Reading
5. Biogroahy and Tributes
6. Sing
7. Sermon
9. Prayer
10. Song

Part Three

At the Grave Side

1. Song
2. Prayer

Pastor Andrews Agyei

Tribute by Grandchildren

to the late

OBP. MARTHA AMPOFOWAA

and

OBP. KWABENA ASARE

Our Beloved Grandparents,

Today we, your grandchildren, honour you with love and gratitude.

Together, you showed us what true love is. Grandpa with your wisdom and calm spirit, and Grandma with your kindness and generous heart - you made a perfect home full of peace.

You taught us to respect, to be honest, to work hard and to put God first. Your doors were always open, your food was always plenty, and your love never ran out.

Thank you for your prayers, your word of encouragement, your advice, your laughter and your blessings upon our lives. Because of you, we know what it means to be family.

We will miss you dearly, but your legacy will live on in us.

Rest well, our dearest Grandparents. We love you forever.

From all your loving Grandchildren.

Tribute by Children

OBP. MARTHA AMPOFOWAA

to the late

OP. KWABENA ASARE

OUR BELOVED MOTHER, OUR EVERYTHING

With heavy hearts yet deep gratitude to God, we pay tribute to you, our beloved Mother. You were calm, kind, and generous our first teacher, counselor, prayer warrior, comforter, and greatest source of encouragement. Through every challenge, you remained strong and gentle. You taught us to be respectful, hardworking, content, and above all, to fear God.

We will forever cherish your prayers, words of wisdom, loving care, delicious meals, gentle smile, and the peace you brought into our home.

You have fought a good fight and finished your race. As your children, we promise to uphold the values and legacy you left behind and remain united as you always desired.

DAMIRIFA DUE, OBAAPANIN

Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord, our sweet Mother.
From your loving children.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

2 Timothy 4:7

Daddy, Teacher Ata, Agya Ata, you were more than a father to us. You were our protector, provider, teacher, counsellor, and source of strength and guidance.

You loved, supported, and guided each of us through the different seasons of our lives. Your sacrifices, struggles, wisdom, and lessons helped shape who we are today.

You were the father of Nana Akuoko Danso, Apostle Emmanuel Amoako, Naomi Asare (Yaa Pinamang), Paul Tandoh Asare, and Daniel Mensah. Though our journeys may differ, we share one priceless blessing:

WE HAD YOU AS OUR FATHER.

Your voice may be silent, but your love, sacrifices, values, and memories will continue to live through us.

Daddy, for everything you gave and everything you did, we say:

"DADDY, THANK YOU."

You fought the good fight. You finished the race. You kept the faith.

DAMIRIFA DUE, AGYA ATA.

Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord until we meet again.

Biography

OBP. MARTHA AMPOFOWAA

OP. KWABENA ASARE

Date of Birth : She was born on 6th May, 1923.

Home town : She comes from Jackie in the Bosomtwe District .

Mother: The Late Obp. Adwoa Pinamang (Kontor)

Father : The Late Op. Osei Kwame Bruku.

Siblings : She has Six (6) siblings of which five (5) are late .

Children : She has Seven (7) children of which four are late .

Ancestral Family: She hails from Petenyase family .

Education : She has her formal education at Jackie.

Work/Career : She was a trader and a farmer .

Christian Life : She was a member of Church of Christ , Jackie.

Date of Birth : He was born on 21st September , 1943

Home town : He comes from Jackie in the Bosomtwe District .

Mother: The Late Obp. Adwoa Pinamang (Yaa Konto)

Father : The Late Op. Osei Kwame Bruku.

Siblings : She has Six (6) siblings of which five (5) are late .

Children : He has Six (6) children .

Ancestral Family: She hails from Petenyase family .

Education : He has his formal and middle education at Jackie Pramso .

Work/Career : He was a vocational teacher at Methodist Middle School in Asante Mampong .

Christian Life : He was a member of the a Twelve Apostles Church .

chapter of memories

XX

